PREFACE

The Institut Ramon Llull is a public consortium established in 2002 with the aim of promoting the Catalan language and culture abroad. This mission is accomplished by providing broad international exposure to writers and artists, encouraging artistic and cultural exchanges and supporting Catalan studies in universities. Currently, the consortium is formed by the Government of Catalonia, the Government of the Balearic Islands and the Barcelona City Council.

The Institut's departments work in the following areas:

DEPARTMENT OF PERFORMING AND VISUAL ARTS: visual arts, architecture and design, performing arts, music and film

DEPARTMENT OF LITERATURE: Catalan literary fiction, non-fiction, children's and YA books, modern classics, poetry, drama and illustrated books.

DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGE AND UNIVERSITIES: Catalan studies in academic settings

The Institut cooperates with literary festivals worldwide and regularly attends international book fairs. The Institut manages and organises the presence of Catalan Culture as Guest of Honour at these events.

The Institut focuses on the most relevant Catalan titles and endorses outstanding books from Catalan publishers and agencies. To do so, it produces its own promotional material. In addition, the Institut organises a fellowship programme held annually in Barcelona and targeting international publishers and agents.

The Institut also offers 6 different Grants aimed at professionals within the publishing sector. This brochure provides a summary of each of these:

1. Literature Translation
2. Literature Promotion
3. Illustrated Books
4. Travel for Authors
5. Promotional Materials
6. Translators in Residency

Through these resources and initiatives, the Institut aims to support writers, illustrators, translators, publishers, literary agents and festival organisers to bring Catalan literature to readers around the world.
